He did not speak, because the poor little boy had first knocked down the copper that was on the tree behind the house of the chief, and then he had also shot the white bear. All the young men, and also the chief, were ashamed, because the poor little boy had accomplished this. Then the chief made up his mind. He was ashamed, and therefore he sent his slave ordering the people to move away from the village. The great slave ran out, and with a loud voice ordered the people to move. They heard it, and early in the morning they moved. Not a single person staved behind. They all went by canoe. Only the chiefs daughter and the poor little boy were left, and with them his old grandmother. These three stayed behind. The old grandmother had a few pieces of dried...
