Dark Oak Mysteries, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bright Morning Star is set in a familiar but faraway country - the United States in the early 1900s. The novel's protagonist, Emma Pierce, is the quintessential new woman of the times. Talented and sharp, she is the confidante and right hand man to her father, the head of the prestigious Seneca Institute, an educational institution in upstate New York . Here she writes speeches and letters for her father, and mingles with the great leaders and thinkers of the day, from Theodore Roosevelt to Mark Twain. In this rarefied world she struggles to balance her father's expectations with her growing sense of independence. This balance is tested when she meets Caleb Johnson, the charismatic son of a revivalist preacher, whose views on religion are anathema to her father's free-thinking sensibilities. The test proves to be too much, and Emma finds herself estranged from her father, separated from Caleb, and embarking on an ambitious new career as a magazine writer in New York . It is there that her skills come to serve her best. Emma is assigned to cover the case of a soldier returning to America from the war in the Philippines . He has been court-martialed for violent crimes against civilians and faces a 20-year prison sentence. But the case is personal - the convicted soldier is Caleb Johnson, who is refusing to talk about the events that resulted in his conviction, and Emma, as determined as ever, vows to discover what led this honorable man to commit atrocities. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Tom Coffey's first novel, THE SERPENT CLUB, was published in 1999 and earned a starred review from...
