Excerpt from The Men of 48, Vol. 1: Being a Brief History of the Repeal Association and the Irish Confederation; With Biographical Sketches of the Leading Actors in the Latter Organization, Their Principles, Opinions, and Literary Labors Recent advices from Europe indicate that the struggle for self-government and the right of domestic legislation, which has been suspended in Ireland since 1848, is about to be renewed; and, it is to be hoped, under more favorable auspices than those which ushered in the Repeal movement under O Connell, or the Irish Confederation of Duffy and O Brien. Men, almost entirely new to the mass of the people, seem to be taking the most prominent part in this revived agitation; and a generation, who know little of the virtues and faults, the victories and defeats, which characterized the popular leaders of 1840-50, are their followers. As, in conducting this new crusade against English misgovernment, those champions of national rights will have to go over much of the ground trodden by their predecessors, they will, if they hope for success, be...

Reviews

This composed book is excellent. it was actually written very perfectly and valuable. I found out this book from my i and dad advised this book to learn.

-- Maymie O'Kon

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
