They show that world peace, global justice, and a sustainable planet are all possible , through enforceable global law. This book is their definitive acount for our time of how humanity can abolish war by transforming the United Nations into an effective world democracy. Presents the only viable long-term solution to the most urgent global problems, which would be a federation of all nations. After centuries of warfare , Europe has accomplished just such a transformation by outlawing war between member states of the EU , European Union. This book shows how to do the same thing at the global level through implementing the only time-tested solution to violence and injustice - law and democratic government. Humanity has a sovereign right to govern itself; this book shows how a new social contract can be created for the entire planet. Author Jerry Tetalman is a leader in the global government movement; Byron Belitsos is a long time activist for world federalism.
