Summary: "For the thirty years I've studied under John MacArthur's preaching, he has always taken great pains to give the historical and scriptural context behind each verse, reminding the believer that every noun and verb in the Bible is inspired by the Holy Spirit to call us to a holy and obedient life. It's what makes John's sermons so timeless and enduring. He has no interest in novelty or self-aggrandizement. His passion is fidelity... fidelity to Christ. . . fidelity to the Word of God." --R. C. Sproul, President, Ligonier Ministries; Senior Minister of Preaching, St. Andrew's Chapel, Sanford, Florida "John MacArthur has set the benchmark for diligent study, careful exegesis, and faithful exposition and all of us are encouraged by his example." --Alistair Begg, Senior Pastor, Parkside Church, Cleveland, Ohio "Revered as 'the Spurgeon of our day,' John MacArthur is arguably the foremost expositor of this generation--the modern day 'prince of preachers' and no less than 'America's pastor.' With a profound ability to grasp the biblical text and convey its essential meaning, the sheer genius of MacArthur's preaching lies in his mastery of the Scripture combined with his rare capacity to communicate..."
