When you get dressed before leaving your home every day, you probably take a couple of seconds to consider what you're going to wear. In doing so, you are subconsciously determining what you want the world to think about you. With your runners, ripped jeans, and faded concert t-shirt, the world may very well assume that you are hip, young, and don't care about fashion! In many cases you are probably getting dressed for comfort and ease of wear for whatever you may be planning that day; a day at school, going out with friends, a lunch date, clubbing, a trip to the grocery store, or even just taking the dog for a walk. If you want to be perceived as being stylish and chic, but you thought that you had to sacrifice comfort, then worry no more! The tips outlined in this book, How to be Stylish and Chic: A Quick Guidebook on Dressing Stylish and Being Chic, will help you assemble a first rate wardrobe that will keep you on the fashion forward path and guide you to: How to Create the Stylish Look How Do You Dress Up in a Chic and Stylish Way?
