The exercises commenced in the Unitarian Church at about one o'clock. The church was very appropriately trimmed for the occasion, bearing upon the walls, upon either side of the pulpit, the names and places of battle of the deceased soldiers, trimmed in evergreen and black, surmounted with the stars and stripes. Upon the side walls were the following mottos: Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. My peace I give unto you. He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. The noble army of martyrs praise thee. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.
