And don t let him forget the handkerchief. Meg ran all the way to where Twaddles sat on a stone blissfully engrossed with something in the roadway. Mother says to come this minute, she commanded. What you got, Twaddles? There! you ve scared it, said Twaddles regretfully. It was a dear little snake. All right, I m coming. I was all ready to start when you came. After this delay the trip went smoothly, and Father Blossom declared that he was pleased with the new car. They reached the broad, level lake road and drove for several miles along it until Mother Blossom said that if they were not to keep Norah s supper waiting, they must turn back. Want to get out, Meg? Father Blossom asked his little daughter gently.[.].
