They profess in the clearest manner faith in the expiatory sacrifice of our Saviour as the only means of reaching heaven, and altogether they present a most astonishing compound of truth and error. Some here call them Mormonites, some Puritans, some Fanatics, and a hundred other names; but the fact is, wo scarcely know sufficient of them, even now, to judge what they truly are, and what they intend. A letter, also, from the British chaplain at Shangnao, written to.mo immediately after the return of the British steamer from Nankin, contains...
